FILM TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

SO, YOU WANT TO BE A SCREENWRITER?

A Training Course for Novice Writers

The Namibia Film Commission (NFC) hereby invites Namibian Filmmakers to apply for a short course in Script Writing. The training course is designed to sharpen script writing skills of local writers, with an overview on screenwriting as both an art and craft, and how screenwriting differs from novel writing and other forms of prose.

Criteria to apply:

- Applicants must be Namibians, 18 years and older.
- Provide a motivation on why they want to attend the course.
- Submit a sample of their best script or treatment.
- Applicants must be willing to attend the full course from 4th – 11th October 2015 in Windhoek without interruption.
- Applicants must have no criminal record.
- Be mentally fit and in good health.
- Applicants must have good command of the official language (spoken and written).

The training course is fully funded by the NFC, excluding transport and accommodation. All applications should reach the NFC not later than Friday the 18th of September 2015.

Submissions should be emailed to info@nfc.na or hard copies to be delivered to:
